

A-CCT PARTNERS

In the year 2021, project partners from Slovenia, the Netherlands, Norway, Romania and Turkey successfully received the European Erasmus+ project entitled: "Digital content development for integration of cloud technologies in formal and distance vocational education". These partners are:

ALGEBRA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE (AUC)

Algebra University College (AUC) is non-profit private accredited higher educational institution active in the fields of computer engineering and economy. AUC offers undergraduate and graduate studies in digital technologies: software engineering, system engineering, data science, digital art, digital marketing, game development, multimedia. As a part of AUC, Algebra LAB provides professional consulting support and develops practical, applicable digital solutions for higher standards in service delivery in the private and public sector.

FACULTY OF ORGANISATION STUDIES IN NOVO MESTO (FOS)

Faculty of Organisation Studies in Novo mesto (FOS), Slovenia was established in 2008 as an independent Faculty under Slovenian law. FOS has accredited study programmes in Quality management at the bachelor's, master's and doctoral level and Management in tourism at the bachelor's level. FOS is innovative and oriented towards personal development of students and has teaching faculty members with rich academic and practical experiences in the field.

Fakulteta za
organizacijske študije
Faculty of organisation studies

NEFINIA

n. NEFINIA plays a key role in the implementation of EU Regulations and Directives through its participation in EU-funded networks and projects at the interregional level. Its ultimate goal is to incorporate the recommendations of EU projects into national and regional policies. Their dynamic ecosystem of visionaries, doers, innovators and researchers provides guidance and supports entrepreneurship goals.

PAYDAŞ

The main aim of Paydas is to include art in formal, non-formal and informal education. In this sense, the usual activities of the association include the organization of trainings that support the development of supporting educational activities for trainers, educators, facilitators in formal and non-formal education. Paydas also focuses on developing innovative training programs, modules and tools to support educational resources.

PRIOS KOMPETANSE AS (PRIOS)

Prios Kompetanse AS (Prios) is a research-based corporation established by several collaborative competence environments. Main tasks are project management, business consulting, innovation processes, training and software development. Prios as research center aims to implement the idea of lifelong learning, support and conduct development projects. The center is open to all who wish to develop their talents, refresh their knowledge, improve their business, needs new or better digital tools or have ideas in need for support to be fulfilled.

TRANSYLVANIA" TECHNICAL COLLEGE OF TRANSPORT (COLEGIUL)

"Transylvania" Technical College of Transport is located in Cluj-Napoca, Romania. Cluj-Napoca, the second largest city in Romania, situated in the north-western part of Romania. They provide educational programs for students interested in taking up a technical career either by attending 4-year high-school level courses or by completing 3-year vocational school courses in areas such as mechanics, electronics, electrical engineering, automation, civil engineering, automotive transportation. They also offer post-high school courses in informatic domain, qualification: analyst programmer.

Project number: 2021-1-SI01-KA220-VET-000034641